Join us for a lecture by Dr. Denis Kitzinger for an introduction to Catholic Social teaching. The lecture will be 45 minutes with a 15 minute period set aside for Q&A. Afterwards, there will be time for refreshments and further conversation.

Denis Kitzinger received his master's degree from Pepperdine University and spent an invaluable year at the Russell Kirk Center in Michigan. From 2008 to 2010 he and his wife Sara lived in lovely Scotland where he began pursuing his doctorate with the University of St Andrews in intellectual history on the Catholic phenomenologist Dietrich von Hildebrand (1889-1977). At Thomas More College, Dr. Kitzinger mainly teaches humanities and moral and political philosophy.

The Thomas More College of Liberal Arts Center for the Restoration of Christian Culture will be organizing several lectures over the course of the year on Church Teaching, Family Life, Culture, Civic Life, and Education.
