Are City and School Libraries still part of a common trust, or are they beachheads for political forces which use books to advance social agendas? Join us for a lecture by Dr. William Fahey tackling this issue. The lecture will be 45 minutes with a 15 minute period set aside for Q&A. Afterwards, there will be time for refreshments and further conversation.

Dr. William Fahey is the third president of Thomas More College. He holds degrees in Classics, History, and Early Christian Studies. Prior to his arrival at Thomas More he taught at the Catholic University of America and Christendom College, as well as several preparatory schools. He has explored libraries ancient and modern in 24 states, as well as throughout Europe and Turkey.

The Thomas More College of Liberal Arts Center for the Restoration of Christian Culture will be organizing several lectures over the course of the year on Church Teaching, Family Life, Culture, Civic Life, and Education.
