G.K. Chesterton was known for his flamboyant personality, his avant-garde artistic taste, and his shocking conversion to Catholicism. Yet the key to understanding Chesterton's thought and appreciating the great gift he gives to the modern age is simplicity itself. Join William Fahey for this introduction to the greatest adventure you may ever be invited to take: living your own life.

Dr. William Fahey is the third president of Thomas More College. He holds degrees in Classics, History, and Early Christian Studies. Prior to his arrival at Thomas More he taught at the Catholic University of America and Christendom.

The event will also be broadcast live over Youtube

The Thomas More College of Liberal Arts Center for the Restoration of Christian Culture will be organizing several lectures over the course of the year on Church Teaching, Family Life, Culture, Civic Life, and Education.
